

OPTIMAL SPACE UTILIZATION

Project work, home office and field work mean your offices often go unused?

DEIN RAUM helps you implement future-focused desk sharing concepts, allowing you to efficiently make the most of your resources.

Your company's floor plans are displayed on the system's graphic user interfaces.

Making it easy to see which desks are occupied and when. Your employees can see which of their colleagues are at the office with them and can find information on a workspace's technical features.

// Resource optimization with bookable workspaces

The specially developed DEIN RAUM app provides the highest technology standards.

Our app runs on a cloud-based server. Allowing us to offer the app as an SaaS – Software as a

// Smart working in modern office life service. Saving you purchasing and operating costs.

Our hosting service provider operates its own data centers, all of which are located exclusively in Germany and is committed to

// Easy and transparent compliance with distancing guidelines using 100% renewable energy. Avoiding nuclear energy and energy that generates environmentally-harmful CO2 emissions is important to us.
